

Uniform Residential Loan Application

This application is designed to be completed by the applicant(s) with the Lender's assistance. Applicants should complete this form as "Borrower" or "Co-Borrower", as applicable. Co-Borrower information must also be provided (and the appropriate box checked) when the income or assets of a person other than the "Borrower" (including the Borrower's spouse) will be used as a basis for loan qualification or the income or assets of the Borrower's spouse or other person who has community property rights pursuant to state law will not be used as a basis for loan qualification, but his or her liabilities must be considered because the spouse or other person has community property rights pursuant to applicable law and Borrower resides in a community property state, the security property is located in a community property state, or the Borrower is relying on other property located in a community property state as a basis for repayment of the loan.

If this is an application for joint credit, Borrower and Co-Borrower each agree that we intend to apply for joint credit (sign below):

Mortgage Broker Fee Disclosure

You have applied to a mortgage broker for a residential mortgage loan. The mortgage broker will submit your application for a residential mortgage loan to a participating lender with which it from time to time contracts upon such terms and conditions as you may request or a lender may require. The lenders have asked that this form be furnished to you to clarify the role of mortgage brokers. This form supplements other disclosures or agreements required by law that you should receive from the mortgage broker concerning your application.

SECTION 1. NATURE OF RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan:

- The mortgage broker may be acting as an independent contractor and not your agent. If you are unsure of the nature of your relationship, please ask the mortgage broker for clarification.
- The mortgage broker has separate independent contractor agreements with various lenders.
- While the mortgage broker seeks to assist you in meeting your financial needs, it does not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest price or best terms available in the market.

SECTION 2. THE BROKER'S COMPENSATION. The lenders whose loan products are distributed by the mortgage broker generally provide their loan products at a wholesale rate.

- The retail price a mortgage broker offers you – your interest rate, total points and fees – will include the broker's compensation.
- In some cases, the mortgage broker may be paid all of its compensation by either you or the lender.
- Alternatively, the mortgage broker may be paid a portion of its compensation by both you and the lender. For example, in some cases, if you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay higher up-front points and fees.
- Also, in some cases, if you would rather pay less up-front, you may wish to have some or all of your fees paid directly by the lender, which will result in a higher interest rate and higher monthly loan payments than you would otherwise be required to pay.
- The mortgage broker also may be paid by the lender based on (i) the value of the Mortgage Loan or related servicing rights in the market place or (ii) other services, goods or facilities performed or provided by the mortgage broker to the lender.

You may work with the mortgage broker to select the method in which it receives its compensation depending on your financial needs, subject to the lender's loan program requirements and credit underwriting guidelines.

The amount of fees and charges that you pay in connection with your loan will be estimated on your Good Faith Estimate. The final amount will be disclosed on your HUD-1 or HUD-1A Settlement Statement.

By signing below, applicants(s) acknowledge that you have read and understand this document. By your signature, you also acknowledge that you have received a copy of this document.
